Built by the expert craftsmanship of Donal O'Brien Building, Knocklaun provides the perfect backdrop for families and professionals seeking a sophisticated lifestyle in one of Cork's most desirable locations.

We invite you to explore the timeless charm of Knocklaun, where your dream home awaits.

VISION FOR KNOCKLAUN

At Knocklaun, every home has been meticulously crafted to embody a new level of luxury and sophistication. The vision behind this exclusive development is to offer more than just a place to live, but a sanctuary where timeless elegance meets contemporary design.

Each home is the result of a seamless collaboration between renowned local architect James Bourke and the family-run building firm, Donal O'Brien Building. Together, they have crafted a collection of 11 exquisite homes that balance modern design with timeless elegance, offering a sophisticated lifestyle in the heart of Midleton.

This contemporary development features three distinct house types: detached, semi-detached, and terraced homes. Each residence is spaciouly designed, offering a choice of 3- and 4-bedroom options.

The interiors are expertly crafted for both comfort and style, with a focus on an easy flow of movement throughout the home. From light-filled living spaces to generously sized bedrooms, these homes offer a sense of openness and relaxation.

From the moment you step inside a Knocklaun home, you will be greeted by unparalleled attention to detail, ensuring that every corner reflects the elegance and quality synonymous with luxury living.

This is more than just a development—it is a refined living experience, where exceptional craftsmanship and thoughtful design come together to create a home of distinction.

Farmers Market

The original farmers market in Ireland, founded by Ballymaloes Darina Allen, attracts a crowd every Saturday morning in the town's main square. This bustling market is the perfect place to pick up fresh, local produce and artisanal goods. You'll find everything from organic vegetables by Ballymaloe, to fresh seafood from Ballycotton Seafood and delicious food to be enjoyed on the spot from local producers. The market is a true reflection of the community spirit in Midleton and a celebration of the best of East Cork.

Food Lovers' Paradise

Midleton is a hub for food enthusiasts, offering a range of dining experiences that suit every taste. From cosy cafés like Pan or Bite Size to renowned eateries such as Ferrit & Lee, Midleton boasts a culinary scene that's both diverse and exciting. For fine dining and casual bites alike, Midleton's restaurants are a foodie's delight.

Schools and Healthcare

For families, Midleton provides access to some of Cork's most reputable schools, offering excellent education options from primary through secondary levels. With modern healthcare facilities close by, residents have easy access to quality medical services, ensuring peace of mind.

Embrace the Outdoors

Nature lovers are never far from adventure in Midleton. Enjoy scenic walks in Ballyannan Woods or along the Owenacurra River, perfect for peaceful strolls or outdoor activities. With the stunning beaches of East Cork just a short drive away, weekends are made for exploring the great outdoors.

Exploring East Cork

Living at Knocklaun opens the door to the natural beauty of East Cork. Explore the stunning beaches and charming seaside towns that define this coastal region. Take a trip to the picturesque village of Ballycotton, where you can enjoy coastal walks or fresh seafood by the water. A short drive brings you to Ardmore, with its sandy beaches and rich history. Whether you're relaxing on the beach at Garryvoe or taking in the stunning views from the Ballycotton Cliff Walk, the treasures of East Cork are all within easy reach.

Living at Knocklaun means enjoying all that Midleton has to offer – a town that provides the perfect mix of history, community, and modern convenience, ensuring you have everything you need right at your doorstep.

CONNECTIVITY

At Knocklaun, connectivity is a key feature. With regular trains from Midleton to Cork City, commuting has never been easier. Under the Cork Metropolitan Area Transport Strategy (CMATS) 2040, train services will increase to run every 10 minutes, making it more convenient than ever to access Cork's bustling city life. Whether you're travelling for work or leisure, Knocklaun's easy access to road and rail ensures you're always well connected.

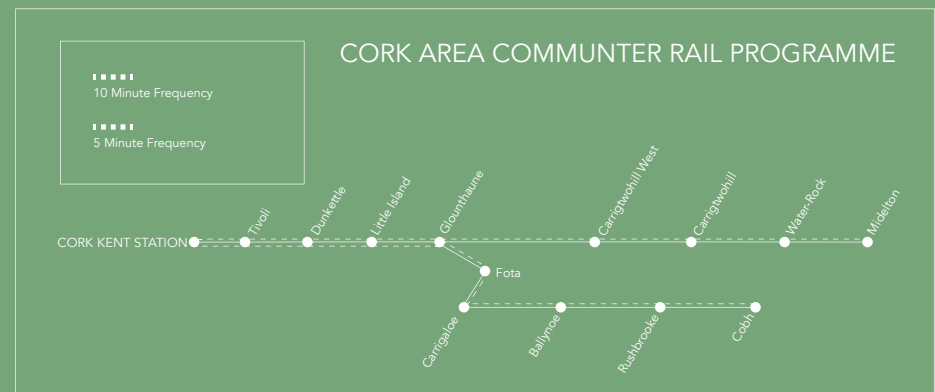

Seamless Connectivity

Knocklaun is perfectly situated to offer both the tranquillity of countryside living and the convenience of easy access to major urban centres. With established road, rail, and greenway links, residents enjoy unparalleled connectivity to Cork City, Midleton, and the wider East Cork region.

Seamless Connectivity

Soon to be one of East Cork's most exciting outdoor attractions, the Midleton to Youghal Greenway will offer a scenic escape for walkers, cyclists, and outdoor enthusiasts alike. Following the route of the old railway line, this picturesque path will stretch from the bustling town of Midleton to the historic seaside town of Youghal. Whether you're seeking a leisurely walk through lush countryside or a more energetic bike ride along the coast, the greenway will provide a safe and peaceful environment to enjoy the natural beauty of the region, linking these two vibrant towns while showcasing the stunning landscapes in between.
